

2010 Programs Sponsored by the Friends of the West Caldwell Public Library

The following programs, co-sponsored by the West Caldwell Historical Society and the Friends of the Library, are their first programs presented in 2010.

Nothing to Fear: FDR and the Great Depression

Thursday, January 14 at 7:00 pm

Presented by: Dr. Raymond Frey

Future Programs . . .

Letters Home:

A Day in the Life of a Civil War Soldier

Thursday, March 4 at 7:00 pm

Presented by: Mark Simmons

This unique presentation captures the essence of the life and times of a Union soldier during the American Civil War. Authentic uniform, gear and artifacts combined with a dramatic first person characterization make Letters Home a memorable and poignant experience for all ages. Audience members will have the chance to explore the display items and interact with the actor. A question & answer session will follow the show.

“The Buck Stops Here!”

The Life and Times of Harry S. Truman

Thursday, April 8 at 7:00 pm

Presented by: Dr. Raymond Frey

He was tough, honest, fearless and decisive. Born of humble roots, no one would have guessed that he would rise to lead America through some of the most difficult times and become one of our greatest and most admired presidents. Join Dr. Raymond Frey as he tells the story of President Harry S. Truman through photographs, documents and personal accounts told to him by the men and women who worked for Truman